

SURVIVAL CHALLENGE 2012

VENTURE CREW 410

Alamo Area Council

WHEN: Feb 17-19, 2012
WHERE: Bracken Bat Cave,
(near Shertz, TX)
Cost: TDB ($30-40) will include a Survival Challenge Shirt

Points of Contact
Kori Dunaway – President
Email- koridunaway@yahoo.com
Bryan Scott – Crew Advisor
Cell (210) 385-9459
Email – aavmaj@gmail.com

Purpose - To learn survival skills, and meet several requirements for the Venture Bronze Award.

Activities -

Day 1-Training in survival strategies, regulating body temperature, water procurement, emergency fire building, edible plants, shelter construction, fire building competition, famous mammoth hunt with atlatl, search dog demonstrations

Day 2 - Survival Challenge (Survival team competitions to see who will survive)

PS - It was the Female team that won the fire starting competition

Where - The 695 acre Bracken Bat Cave Preserve near Schertz.

Who - Registered BSA Venture Crew members and Boy or Girl Scouts over the age of 14 years.

Reservations are Required - See the contact information above to obtain more information on the event.

Modules will be taught in the field by qualified experts.

Costs include food for the weekend.

CHALLENGE BY CHOICE

