

University of Commissioner Science

Saturday, February 21, 2009

Training courses are open to all Scouters throughout the Council. Bachelor, Master, and Doctor of Commissioner Science degrees are offered. Bachelor and Master degrees require six hours of training each and the Doctors degree requires a written thesis. The course is designed to train Commissioners to better serve their units, but can be used by all Scouters to improve their unit skills.

Roundtable Commissioner Training also offered:

- Roundtable Planning
- Roundtable Staff Management
- Roundtable Pre-opening
- Program Feature Presentation
- Displays, Ceremonies, Spirit, Games
- Roundtable Promotion

Where & When: Course will be held at the Castle Hills First Baptist School, 2220 N.W. Military Hwy in San Antonio (near McGimsey Scout Reservation). Held on Saturday February 21st - Registration from 8:00 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. Training will conclude at 3:30 p.m.

The cost of the course is $5.00. The fee covers a University of Commissioners Science Patch, a course level patch, a diploma, snack (coffee and donuts) and other materials. Lunch will be from 11:30 to 12:30 p.m. and will not be covered, so plan accordingly.

Please register early so we can make sure there will be enough materials for all.
